Ryan Moran, MD
CURRENT RESIDENTS

Ryan holds a Bachelor’s in Economics from the University of California, Davis and earned his MD from the University of Arizona. His clinical interests include obesity and tobacco incentives with tobacco. His preventive medicine interests lie between health policy, health economics and clinical care.

Porchia Rich, MD, MPH, MSW

Porchia grew up in San Diego, California, and earned her bachelor’s in Psychology from the University of Chicago. With a Master’s in Social Work from the San Diego State University, she is interested in health disparities and returning to San Diego for her training years so she may be part of solutions to those disparities. Her diverse background in psychology, social work, and medicine makes her a unique resident who will provide her patients with the best care possible.
Deepa Sannidhi, MD

Deepa was born and raised in New Jersey. She attended Rutgers University where she earned her Bachelor's degree in Biology. She then went on to the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey where she received her medical degree. After medical school, she completed her residency in Anesthesiology at the University of California San Francisco. Deepa enjoys cooking, hiking, and exploring new places. She even blogs about it! She's super excited to explore San Diego with her husband and high school sweet-heart.

David Crabtree, MD

David grew up in rural southwestern Virginia and graduated from East Tennessee State University with University Honors. He then completed his undergraduate studies at the University of Virginia. After holding positions in the Peace Corps and the VA, he went on to medical school at the University of Tennessee College of Medicine. He enjoys running, swimming, spending time with his dog “Marlo,” and going to electronic dance music festivals.
