Ryan Moran, MD
CURRENT RESIDENTS

Ryan holds a Bachelor's in Economics from the University of California, Davis and earned his MD from the University of California, San Francisco. He completed his residency in Preventive Medicine at the University of California, San Diego School of Medicine. His research interests include health policy, health economics, and clinical care with a focus on incentives with tobacco. His preventive medicine interests lie between health policy, health economics and clinical care.

Daniel Correll, DO

Dr. Correll, a San Diego native and UCSD alumnus, graduated from Midwestern University's Arizona College of Osteopathic Medicine. He is currently serving as the program director for the Preventive Medicine Residency at UCSD. His research focus is on the association between diabetes and carcinogenesis.
Deepa Sannidhi, MD

Deepa was born and raised in New Jersey. She attended Rutgers University where she earned her Bachelor’s degree in Neuroscience. She decided on a medical career while completing her residency training and is passionate about the field of women’s health. She even blogs about it! She’s super excited to explore San Diego with her husband and high school sweet-heart.

Emily Bruno, MD

Emily is a diplomat-turned-doctor, coming to medicine after two years as a Peace Corps Volunteer in Ethiopia. She spent her two years serving at a women’s health clinic and also worked on a program to save the endangered Ethiopian wolf. She is excited to continue her work here at UCSD Women’s Health and explore the city with her husband and their four rescued Darfur dogs.

Amutha Rajagopal, MD

Amutha was born and raised in India and completed her medical training in a women’s health fellowship. She is passionate about improving health care access for underserved communities and is excited to continue this work here at UCSD Women’s Health.
